

Settlement of Disputes or What To Do If

The Editorial Board of the journal “ANNALS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF ORADEA. Fascicle of Management and Technological Engineering” has adopted the Settlement of Disputes proposed by The Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE), organized as flowcharts, in order to help editors follow COPE’s Code of Conduct and implement its advice when faced with cases of suspected misconduct on 2015:

The documents from COPE contains all standards of ethics and editorial policy of publishing scientific articles, research articles, and ways to deal with problems of ethics, but also the nature of publishing research articles.

We believe it is very important that all the ethical issues of publishing scientific articles, to be treated in accordance with international principles and standards stipulated in the COPE codes.

All disputes on ethics in publishing scientific articles, and reviews complaints against unfavorable authors decisions, are treated by procedures very clearly stated in COPE documents, and in the cases presented as examples of publishing deal with problems.
